

WINEENTHUSIAST®

MAGAZINE

SEPTEMBER 2010

2006 THE MARINER

Dry Creek Valley

92
POINTS

“Shows the edgy tannins that Dry Creek red wines invariably display. That makes the wine, which is a Bordeaux blend of five varieties, a little rustic. But the dryness and bite are a nice alternative to the riper, softer Napa style, and more versatile at the table. Good now, and should slowly develop in the bottle for years.”

