WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Hailing from a vineyard well over 100 years old, the 2004 Beeson Ranch Zinfandel defines the concept of terroir in the Dry Creek Valley. This rich, elegant wine displays aromas of cardamom and white pepper that are unique to this vineyard. On the palate are elegant flavors of black cherry, vanilla, and plum. The finish is silky and smooth with supple tannins that bring harmony and balance to this one-of-a-kind wine.
