93 Points - Best of Class of Appellation

WINE SPECTATOR
AUGUST 2022

90 Points - This is nicely rendered, with an emphasis on fresh, violet-laced blackberry and black cherry compote flavors that are laced up on the finish with a lively licorice note. There's a subtle cedar twinge at the very end. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Malbec, Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc. Drink now through 2027. 3,880 cases made. -James Molesworth

OCTOBER 2021

92 Points - The 2018 Dry Creek Vineyard Mariner Meritage Red is subtly layered, smooth, and elegant. TASTING NOTES: This wine offers generous aromas and flavors of black fruit, a touch of oak and earth. Enjoy with BBQ baby back ribs with an understated sauce. -Wilfred Wong
